(2) Where the poll is adjourned at any polling station -

- (a) the hours of polling on the day to which it is adjourned shall be the same as for the original day; and
- (b) references in the Act to the close of the poll shall be construed accordingly.

39. Procedure after poll: Forthwith upon the close of the poll, in the presence and in full view of the poll clerk and the candidates or their agents, and if the candidates or their agents are absent, then in the presence of such as are present, and of at least two voters if none of the candidates is represented, the presiding officer shall proceed in the following order:

- (a) count the number of votes against whose names appear on the register of voters as having voted and make an entry thereof on the line immediately below the last name on the register, thus: "the number of voters who voted at this election in this polling station is" (stating the number), and affix his signature thereto;
- (b) count the spoiled ballot papers, if any, place them in the special envelope supplied for that purpose and indicate thereon the number of such spoiled ballot papers and seal it up;
- (c) count the unused ballot papers, place them with all the stubs of all used ballot papers in the special envelope supplied for that purpose and indicate thereon the number of such unused ballot papers;
- (d) check the number of ballot papers supplied by the returning officer against the number of spoiled ballot papers, if any, the number of unused ballot papers and the number of voters whose names appear in the register as having voted, in order to ascertain that all ballot papers are accounted for;
- (e) open the ballot box and empty its contents upon a table;
- (f) record and count the number of votes given to each candidate on the tally sheets supplied, giving full opportunity to those present to examine each ballot paper. The poll clerk and not less than two witnesses shall be supplied with tally sheets upon which they may keep their own score as each vote is called out by the presiding officer.

40. Rejected ballot papers: (1) Any ballot paper -

- (a) which does not bear the official mark;
- (b) on which votes are given for more than one candidate;
- (c) on which anything is written or marked by which the voter can be identified; or
- (d) which is unmarked or wholly void for uncertainty,

shall, subject to this rule, be void and not counted.

(2) A ballot paper on which the vote is marked -

- (a) elsewhere than in the proper place;
- (b) otherwise than by means of a cross; or
- (c) by more than one mark, shall not because of this be deemed to be void if an intention that the vote be for one or other of the candidates clearly appears, and the way the paper is marked does not of itself identify the voter and it is not shown that he can be identified thereby.

(3) The presiding officer shall endorse the word "rejected" on any ballot paper which under this rule is not to be counted, and shall add to the endorsement the words "rejection objected to" if an objection is made by a counting agent to his decision.

(4) The presiding officer shall draw up a statement showing the number of ballot papers rejected under the several heads of -

- (a) want of official mark;
- (b) voting for more than one candidate; (c) writing or mark by which voter could be identified; and
- (d) unmarked or wholly void for uncertainty, and any counting agent may copy the statement.

41. Procedure during count: (1) If, in the course of counting the votes any ballot paper is found with the counterfoil still attached thereto, the presiding officer shall (carefully concealing the number thereon from all persons present and without examining them himself), remove such counterfoil. He shall not reject the ballot paper merely by reason of his former failure to remove the counterfoil.

(2) If, in the course of counting the votes, the presiding officer discovers that he has omitted to affix his initials to any ballot paper, as provided by rule 31 (1) (a) and as indicated in Form 7 in the Appendix, he shall, in the presence of the poll clerk and the agents, if any present, of the candidates, affix his initials to such ballot paper and shall count such ballot paper as if it had been initialled by him in the first place provided that he is satisfied that the ballot paper is one that has been supplied by him and that such an omission has really been made and also that every ballot paper supplied to him by the returning officer has been accounted for as provided by rule 39.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (1) or (2) shall relieve the presiding officer from any penalty to which he may have become liable by reason of his having placed any writing, number or mark, other than his initials, on any ballot paper, or of his failure to remove the counterfoil at the time of the casting of the vote to which it relates or to affix his initials to any ballot paper before handing it to any voter.

(4) The presiding officer shall keep a record, on the special form printed in the register of votes, of every objection made by any candidate, or his agent or any voter present, to any ballot paper found in the ballot box, and shall decide every question arising out of the objection. The decision of the presiding officer shall be final, subject to reversal on the final count by the returning officer or on petition questioning the election or the return; and every such objection shall be numbered and a corresponding number placed on the back of the ballot paper and initialled by the presiding officer.

(5) All the ballot papers not rejected by the presiding officer shall be counted and a list kept of the number of votes given to each candidate and of the number of rejected ballot papers. The ballot papers which respectively indicate the votes given for each candidate shall be put into separate envelopes; and rejected ballot papers into a special envelope and all such envelopes shall be endorsed so as to indicate their contents, and shall be sealed by the presiding officer, and by such agents or witnesses present as may desire to seal them or to sign their names thereon in addition or instead.

(6) The presiding officer and the poll clerk, immediately after the completion of the counting of the votes, shall take and subscribe respectively the oaths in Forms 14 and 15 in the Appendix.

(7) The presiding officer shall make the necessary number of copies of the statement of the poll in Form 16 in the Appendix, one copy to be retained by the presiding officer, and one copy for the returning officer which shall be enclosed in a special envelope supplied for the purpose, which envelope he shall seal and deliver personally or transmit to the returning officer.

(8) The register of voters, the several envelopes containing the ballot papers - unused, spoilt, rejected or counted for each candidate and the packet of counterfoils which should remain intact - each lot in its proper envelope, the envelope containing the register of voters and other documents used at the poll shall then be placed in the large envelope supplied for the purpose, and this envelope shall then be sealed and placed in the ballot box. The ballot box shall then be locked and sealed with the seal of the presiding officer and forthwith transmitted or delivered to the returning officer. The returning officer may specially appoint one or more persons for the purpose of collecting the ballot boxes from a given number of polling stations, and such person or persons shall, on delivering the ballot boxes to the returning officer, take the oath in Form 17 in the Appendix.

(9) The presiding officer shall prepare the preliminary statement of the polling in Form 16 in the Appendix and the polling station account furnished to him in blank by the returning officer, having first caused it to be filled in and signed by the officials of his polling station entitled to fees, and by the landlord thereof, if any.

(10) The presiding officer shall then transmit to the returning officer -

- (a) the ballot box;
- (b) the envelope containing the key thereof,
- (c) the preliminary statement of the poll; and
- (d) the polling station account, in such manner as the Supervisor of Elections may direct.

(11) If any presiding officer omits to enclose within the ballot box, and in the proper envelopes provided for that purpose any of the documents mentioned in this rule, he shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable forfeit all right, in such manner as the Supervisor of Elections may direct, to payment for his services as such officer.

42. Final counting of votes: (1) The returning officer, upon receipt by him of each of the ballot boxes, shall take every precaution for its safekeeping and for preventing any person other than himself and his election clerk from having access thereto, sealing it under his own seal so that it cannot be opened without the seal being broken but without effacing or covering any other seals thereto affixed.

(2) After all, the ballot boxes having been received, they shall be opened by the returning officer at the place, date and time specified in the notice referred to in rule 13 (2) for the final count of the votes, and in the presence of such of the candidates or their agents as are present and the returning officer shall -

- (a) count the votes contained therein cast for each candidate (allowing the candidates or their representatives to see such votes) and determine whether any of the votes so cast should be rejected;
- (b) count the votes rejected by the presiding officer (allowing the candidates or their representatives to see such votes) and determine whether any of such votes should be regarded as having been validly cast for any, and if so, for which candidate;

(c) add up the total number of votes (including any votes rejected by the presiding officer but which he thinks should not have been so rejected) cast for each candidate;

(d) make and sign any necessary amendments to the statement of the poll.

(3) The provisions of rule 41 (4) shall apply to the returning officer as they apply to the presiding officer except that for references in that subrule to "the presiding officer" there shall be substituted references to "the returning officer" and that the words "on the final count by the returning officer or" shall be deemed to have been omitted therefrom.

(4) The provisions of rule 41 (7) shall apply to the returning officer as they apply to the presiding officer except -

(a) that the words "returning officer" shall be deemed to be substituted for the words "presiding officer"; and

(b) that the documents referred to in that subrule shall be replaced in the envelopes from which they were removed by the returning officer and such envelopes shall be fastened by a sheet of paper being pasted over the opening thereof.

(5) If at the final count of the votes none of the candidates or their representatives are present, it shall be the duty of the returning officer to secure the presence of at least two voters who shall remain in attendance until such final count of the votes has been completed.

(6) A candidate may, if present when the count or re-count of the votes is completed, require the returning officer to have the votes recounted or again re-counted but the returning officer may refuse to do so if, in his opinion, the request is unreasonable.

(7) No step shall be taken on the completion of the count or any re-count of the votes until the candidates at the completion thereof have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the right conferred by this rule.

(8) The candidate who, on such final count of the votes, is found to have secured the largest number of votes, shall then be declared elected in writing and a copy of such declaration shall be forthwith delivered to each candidate or his agent, if present at the final count of the votes, or, if any candidate is neither present nor represented thereat, shall be forthwith transmitted to such candidate by registered post.

43. Equality of votes: Where, after such final count of the votes is completed, an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of a vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected, a new writ shall be issued in respect of that constituency and all proceedings for an election of a member for that constituency shall commence afresh.

44. Provision applicable where ballot boxes not returned: (1) If the ballot boxes are not returned to the returning officer by the time specified in the notice referred to in paragraph 13 (2), the returning officer shall adjourn the proceedings to a subsequent day, which shall not be more than a week later than polling day.

(2) In case the statement of the poll cannot be found and the number of votes polled for the several candidates cannot be ascertained, or if, for any other cause, the returning officer cannot, at the day and hour appointed by him for that purpose, ascertain the exact number of votes given for each candidate he may thereupon adjourn to a future day and hour the final count of the votes given for each candidate, not being more than seventytwo hours after the time specified in the notice referred to in rule 13 (2).

(3) At the time to which the proceedings are adjourned in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (2) of this rule, the returning officer shall ascertain, by such evidence as he is able to obtain, the total number of votes cast for each candidate and shall declare elected the candidate appearing to him to have the largest number of votes.

(4) For the purpose of this rule, the returning officer shall have all powers of and be deemed to be a commissioner appointed under the law relating to the Commissions of Inquiry Act and the relevant provisions of that law shall apply to all persons required by the returning officer to give evidence or to produce any documents or to persons summoned to attend and to give evidence or to produce documents before a commission of inquiry under that law.

PART III

Final Proceedings in Contested Elections

45. Declaration of result: In a contested election, when the result of the poll has been ascertained, the returning officer shall immediately -

(a) declare to be elected the candidate to whom the majority of votes have been given;

(b) return the name to the Supervisor of Elections for transmission to the Governor-General; and

(c) give public notice of his name and of the total number of votes given for each candidate.

46. Return of writ: (1) The returning officer shall return, as soon practicable, the name of the member elected by endorsing on the writ a certificate in Form 18 in the Appendix and by delivering himself, or forwarding by his agents, the writ duly endorsed to the Supervisor of Elections for transmission to the Governor-General.

(2) Every law as to the effect of, or manner of dealing with, the return of a member to serve in the House of Assembly, shall apply to the certificate.

(3) The returning officer shall forward to each of the candidates a duplicate or copy of the return to the writ made by him.

(4) Any premature return made shall be deemed not to have reached the Supervisor of Elections until the same should have reached him in due course, and he shall, if circumstances so require, send back such return and any or all election documents connected therewith to the returning officer for completion or correction.

(5) The Supervisor of Elections shall, on receiving the return of any member elected to serve in the House of Assembly, transmit the writ with the return endorsed thereon to the Governor-General within the time for the purpose specified therein.

(6) The Supervisor of Elections shall, immediately after each general election, cause to be printed a report giving by polling divisions, the number of votes polled for each candidate, the number of rejected ballots, the number of names on the lists of voters, together with any other information that he may deem fit to include and shall also, at the end of each year, cause to be printed a similar report on the by-elections held during the year.

47. Penalty for delay, neglect or refusal of returning officer to return elected candidate. If any returning officer wilfully delays, neglects or refuses to return any person who ought to be returned to serve in the House of Assembly for any constituency, and if it has been determined on the hearing of an election petition respecting the election of such constituency that such person was entitled to have been returned, the returning officer who has so wilfully, delayed, neglected or refused duly to make such return of his election shall, if the Court so de cides, pay to the person aggrieved the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars and costs in addition to all damages sustained.

48. Record of returns to be made by the Supervisor of Elections: (1) The Supervisor of Elections shall, from the return made through him, enter the name of the member returned in a book to be kept at the Electoral Office and shall immediately give notice in the Gazette of the name of the candidates so elected and in the order in which it was received.

(2) The book shall be open to public inspection at reasonable times and any person may, on payment of a fee of two dollars, take copies from the book.

49. Return or forfeiture of candidate's deposit: (1) Subject to this rule the deposit shall be returned as soon as practicable after the result of the election is declared.

(2) If a candidate is not shown as standing nominated in the statement of persons nominated or if the poll is countermanded because of his death, the deposit shall be returned as soon as practicable after the publication of the statement or after his death, as the case may be.

(3) Subject to paragraph (2), the deposit of a candidate shall be forfeited if a poll is taken and after the count of the votes by the returning officer (including any re-count) is completed the candidate has not been elected and is found not to have polled more than fifteen per centum of the total number of votes polled and, for the purposes of this subrule the number of votes polled shall be the number of ballot papers counted, other than ballot papers endorsed by the returning officer with the word "rejected".

PART IV

Disposal of Documents

50. Custody of ballot boxes: Forthwith upon making the return of the writ in accordance with the provisions of rule 46 the returning officer shall cause the ballot boxes used thereat, with their locks and keys, to be transmitted or delivered to the Supervisor of Elections.

51. Delivery of documents to Supervisor of Elections: (1) The returning officer shall then himself or by his agents, not later than the seventh day after the final count, deliver to the Supervisor of Elections the following documents -

(a) the packets of ballot papers in his possession;

(b) the ballot paper accounts and the statements of rejected ballot papers and the result of the verification of the ballot paper accounts;

(c) the lists of blind and incapacitated voters assisted by companions, the list of votes marked by the presiding officer and the statements relating thereto, and the declaration made by the companions of blind voters;

(d) the packets of counterfoils;

(e) the packets containing marked copies of the registers;

(f) the packets containing transfer certificates of presiding officers and poll clerks; and

(g) all other documents used for the election, endorsing on each packet a description of its contents, the date of the election to which they relate and the name of the constituency for which the election was held.

(2) The Supervisor of Elections shall, on receiving the documents, give a receipt to the person delivering them, and shall register them in a book kept by him for the purpose of specifying the date and time of receipt and shall deposit them in the Electoral Office.

(3) Any receipt to be given for the documents shall show the date and time of their receipt.

52. Custody of election documents: The Supervisor of Elections shall keep the election documents referred to in rule 51 in safe custody and shall allow no person to have access to them:

Provided that if an election petition has been presented questioning the validity of any election or return the said Supervisor shall, on the order of a judge of the Court, deliver to the Registrar of the Court the documents relating to the election that is in dispute:

Provided also that, after the expiration of twelve months from the day of any election, the Supervisor of Elections may cause the said documents used at such election to be burnt.

53. Order for production of documents: (1) An order -

(a) for the inspection or production of any rejected ballot papers, including ballot papers rejected in part, in the custody of the Supervisor of Elections; or

(b) for the opening of a sealed packed of the counterfoils or for the inspection of any counted ballot papers in his custody, may be made by the Court if it is satisfied, by evidence on oath, that the order is required for the purpose of instituting or maintaining a prosecution for an offence in relation to ballot papers or for the purpose of an election petition lodged, or to be lodged, in accordance with the law thereunto applicable.

(2) An order under this rule be made subject to such conditions as to time, place and mode of inspection, production or opening of such documents as the Court thinks fit and the Court may direct the Registrar to retain intact for such period as may be specified in the order, any of the documents referred to in paragraph (1). Provided that in making and carrying into effect an order for opening of a packet of counterfoils or for the inspection of counted ballot papers, care shall be taken to see that the way in which the vote of any particular voter has been given shall not be disclosed until it has been proved that his vote was given and that the vote has been declared by the Court to be invalid.

(3) Any power given under this rule may be exercised by a judge otherwise than in open Court.

(4) Where an order is made for the production by the Registrar of any document in his possession relating to any specified election, the production by him or his agent of the document in such manner as may be directed by that order shall be conclusive evidence that the document relates to the specified election, and any endorsement on any packet of ballot papers so produced shall be prima facie evidence that the ballot papers are what they are stated to be by the endorsement.

(5) The production from proper custody of a ballot paper purporting to have been used at any election, and of a counterfoil marked with the same thereon in writing, shall be prima facie evidence that the voter whose vote was given by that ballot paper was the person who at the time of the election had affixed to his name in the register of voters with the same number as the number written on the counterfoil.

(6) Subject to this rule no person shall be allowed to inspect any rejected or counted ballot paper in the possession of the Registrar or to open any sealed packets of counterfoils.

54. Retention and public inspection of documents: (1) The Registrar shall retain for one year all documents relating to an election delivered to him under these Rules by the Supervisor of Elections, and then, unless otherwise directed by order of the Court, shall cause them to be destroyed.

(2) The said documents, except ballot papers and counterfoils, shall be open to public inspection at such time and subject to such conditions as the Registrar may direct.

(3) The Registrar shall on request, supply copies or extracts from the documents open to public inspection on payment of such fees and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.
